2.	How does the school identify children with special educational needs?	Sometimes a child moves into the school with a special educational need already identified. Sometimes a teacher will flag up a lack of progress or attainment in one of the four areas. Sometimes a parent may bring a need to our attention. Forms of assessment include curriculum-based assessment (to ascertain which stage the child is at in the four rules of learning (acquisition, fluency, maintenance, generalisation), criterion-referenced assessments, norm-referenced assessment and illuminative observation. We use the Devon Graduated response document to look further into needs. https://www.devon.gov.uk/support-schools-settings/send/devon-graduated-response/
3.	What types of special education needs does the school currently need to provide? 	We have children with needs related to: Autism Spectrum Conditions including Asperger's and PDA; ADHD and ADD which are linked to other executive functioning issues such as Auditory Processing Disorder and poor working memory; also Dyslexia, Dyspraxia, Dyscalculia, Dysgraphia, hypermobility, poor mental health such as OCD, anxiety, sensory issues, attachment disorder; also severe or long term medical needs such asthma, allergies, heart problems, Downs Syndrome, Ehlers-Danlos, visual impairment, hearing impairment; also other rare conditions, which can sometimes affect education.
4.	How many children in the school have special educational needs?	This varies at any given time, depending on a variety of criteria, for instance the numbers of children entering and leaving the school, who is receiving intervention and who no longer needs it, who is academically below ARE and who has now attained it. It also depends whether a child has some difficulty learning reading and may need extra hearing reading built into their day (more than we would normally do), or such severe needs that they cannot access education without an adult constantly assisting.
5.	How many children are being provided for at SEND Support?	This number changes daily according to needs and interventions changing, children arriving and leaving, etc but is usually between 110 and 160. At the last census it was 151 including 22 EHCPs with 14 in the pipeline (though they may not all be agreed by 0-25).

20.	Admissions Arrangements for pupils with SEND	We give higher priority for children where there is an exceptional need to attend this school and not another school. The need must be specific to this school: a child may have very challenging circumstances that require additional support but if that support could also be provided at another school, there would be no exceptional need to attend this school. Exceptional need could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A serious medical condition, which can be supported by medical evidence; • Significant caring responsibilities, which can be supported by a social care officer; • Where one or both parents or the child has a disability that may make travel to another school more difficult, which can be supported by medical evidence. These examples aren't meant to be exhaustive or exclusive. Neither should it be assumed that similar circumstances would impact on different children and families in the same way. Information on supporting evidence required for cases of exceptional need is detailed in the school's main Admissions Policy. Withycombe Raleigh Church of England Primary School is required by Section 66 of the Children and Families' Act 2014 to use their best endeavours to secure that the special educational provision called for by the pupil's special educational needs is made. We will do everything possible to make sure that pupils have their educational needs met, but it is not an absolute duty to do so in all circumstances.
